HAMLET AT FOLGER THEATRE

Sunday evening, March 12, is the date of the interpreted performance of Hamlet at the Folger Theatre. All members of the deaf community who would like to attend the special performance should call for reservations now. Tickets are available from the Folger box office and can be charged by calling 546-4000 (voice) after noon daily. Be sure to specify that you want tickets for the interpreted performance.

NEED IRS TAX HELP?

Deaf persons who are preparing their own tax return and have questions they would like answered straight from the horse's mouth can call IRS via TTY, Monday thru Friday, between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. The toll free number to call is 800-428-4732. One word of caution--if you call from a Gallaudet phone prefixed by 447, better have a hearing person initiate the call because an operator will ask where you are calling from. Otherwise, just dial the number and let your fingers do the talking.

BASKETBALL STRUGGLING ALONG

Both the men's and women's basketball teams are experiencing difficulties on the court this season. As of February 14, the men have won only seven games in 21 outings. But, if they win one of the two remaining games, they will have improved over last year's 7-17 record.

The women's team has a slightly better record (percentage wise), five wins and seven defeats. With five games remaining, there is still a chance for a winning season.

PANEL DISCUSSION ON NEEDS OF DEAF ADMINISTRATORS

Sandy Rakitt, instructor of the course Reverse Interpreting II, has announced that a panel of deaf administrators will meet on March 2, from 6-9 p.m. in the S.U.L. to discuss the needs of administrators when using interpreters. Students in the reverse interpreting class will reverse the panelists. All interested persons are invited to attend the panel discussion. Participants in the panel include Tom Mayes, Rex Lowman, Steve Mathis, Dick Phillips, Don Pettingill, Suleiman Bushnaq and Ron Sutcliffe.

NTD TO PERFORM IN MARYLAND

The National Theatre of the Deaf will give a performance of Three Musketeers at the Weinberg Center for the Arts in Frederick, Md., on February 25, at 8 p.m. For tickets or further information call (301) 694-8585 (voice only). Costs for tickets are $7.50, $6.50 and $5.50.

EVER WONDER...???

How many people does Gallaudet serve? Seems like an easy question to answer, but, if you think about it, confusion sets in and all kinds of "what abouts" pop up. For example--what about pre-college, what about classes deaf adults take through Continuing Education, what about the workshop Cont. Ed. gave with Seattle Central Community College, what about the PL 94-142 workshops, etc.? The Enrollment Projection Committee is tackling the problem of how to compile enrollment data that would give a complete picture of the number of persons served by Gallaudet. For the record--Gallaudet now serves about 9,400 persons.

BALLET FOLK

The Ballet Folk dance troupe will perform a wide variety of dances, from classic ballet to original American selections on March 1, at 3 p.m. in the S.U.L. This event is sponsored by the Student Union.

ENERGY TIPS FREE

The Department of Energy has published an 18 page booklet on how to survive and maintain a degree of comfort in case temperatures go below freezing and the furnace goes out. It also gives tips on what to do if the pipes freeze, if the lights go out, if the heat goes off, if you get trapped in a blizzard, etc. Single copies of the booklet are free from the Technical Information Center, P.O. Box 62, Oak Ridge, Tenn. 37830.
